

PrefaceTable of Contents

Introduction: Faces of Integration,

by Jan W. Owsinski

I. The Nordic-Baltic Region and Its Future

Towards the Baltic Sea Area Regional Market: Challenges and Opportunities,

by Natalya Gnatovskaya

Regional Policy and Capital Movement,

by Andrzej Stępniak

Pro-Active and Strategic Policies of Integration: Toward a New Social Division of Labour in the Baltic Region,

by Lars Fuglsang and John Storm Pedersen

II. Action-at-a-Distance: Across Space

Labor Force as a Location Factor and the New Spatial Division of Production, by Kent Eliasson and Mats Johansson

Closeness and Close-Downs,

by Lars Olof Persson

Consequences of Economic Development in Eastern Europe for EU Regions

by Annetkatrin Niebuhr, Hayo Herrmann

and Karin Peschel

III. Regions Within

From Visions to Functional Relationships in the Barents Region,

by Ulf Wiberg

The Public Enterprise and the Industry Restructuring Policy in a Semi-Market Economy. Some Polish Experiences,

by Witold Jakobik

Insular and Continental Periphery of Estonia in Transition: Comparative Case-Study, by Aado Keskaik and Gam Raagmaa

IV. Transport

The Potential for Combined Transport in Selected Transport Corridors, by Gunnar Stavrum and Arild Saether

The Region of Gdansk as a Transportation Centre of the Future,

by Henryk Cwiklinski and Grzegorz Pawlowski

Public Evaluation of Proposals for Privately-Funded Transport Infrastructure,

by Gordon Mills

V. Resources and Environment

Government, Industry and Environment:

A Review of Policy Initiatives Designed to Promote Sustainable Economic Growth,

by Keith Clement

Environmental Situation in Eastern Baltic Region and Its Management Strategy,

by Leonardos A. Kairiukstis

Baltic Fisheries - the Key Demands for Integration,

by Robert Aps

List of Workshop Participants

Subject Index