

1. Introduction (Tadeusz Markowski)
2. Poland's Role in European Space in the Light of EU Programming Documents (Jacek Szlachta)
3. Poland's Settlement System – Trends and Factors, Underpinning Change (Piotr Korcelli)
4. The Natural System in the Long-term Perspective of a Durable European Union and Poland
5. A Modern Vision for Transport and Its Potential Influence on Spatial Management (Jan Burnewicz)
6. Polish Space and Energy Security (Jan Popczyk)
7. Eastern Poland in the Face of New Developmental Challenges (Wojciech Dziemianowicz)
8. The Maritime Economy in the Face of New Developmental Trends – Spatial Aspects (Jacek Zaucha)
9. Reflections on the Relationship between National- and Voivodship-level Planning in Poland (Feliks Pankau)
10. An Alternative Approach to the Construction of a National Spatial Development Concept (Ryszard Domański)
11. Problems with Implementing National Spatial Policy (Tadeusz Markowski)
12. The National Spatial Development Concept in the Context of Visions and Prospects for Europe's Spatial Development – Summary (Dominik Drzazga)

Notes on Authors